South Africa Becoming United.

England's dream of a united South Africa is coming true. The premiers of Cape Colony, the Transvaal and the Orange River colony recently moved.
In their respective legislative assembles, the adoption of the resolution of the intercolonial customs and railway conference calling for an early union under the British crown. Natal is no whit behindhand and the resolution of the conference specially referred to the inclusion of Rhodesia in the great South Africa state at a convenient opportunity.

Answer That Pleased Bishop.

The late Bishop Potter was of the mind that Clara Morris was the wittiest woman on the stage. For this opinion he gave as reason her greeting when he called upon her at her place, The Pines, at Riverdale-on-the-Hudson.

"Now that you're here, I don't know any more what to do with you than I would a Gatling gun," said she.

"Treat me in the same manner," he suggested.

"Fire you," retorted Miss Morris.
"Never!"

Proxy Pilgrims.

There are men who make their living by being pilgrims—by performing, over and over again, the difficult pilgrimage to Mecca. These wanderers are called proxy pilgrims.

No Mahometan, no matter how good his life, can be sure of going to heaven unless he makes the long pilgrimage. But the long pilgrimage takes time and money. Hence a priest discovered that it could equally well be made by proxy. And now from Constantinople, from Cairo, from Jeddah the caravans to Mecca are mostly made up of proxies. A pilgrim can proxy for more than one person—for a dozen if he likes. A caravan of 1,000 persons may actually represent—by proxy—50,000 devout pilgrims.

And Still He Lingered.

The lucky cuckoo came outside of the old clock and cuckooed 12 times.
"Do you know," remarked the young man who had been sitting on the parlor sofa since twilight, "that I have a great future? Why, the papers say I am 'man of the hour!'" The beautiful girl yawned.
"Indeed!" she said, wearily. "What hour, the breakfast hour?"
